Daily Diary

Sunday: Today my family and I went down to the beach to clean up the beach for a requirement for Family Life MB. We got there at 9 and got back around 1. Afterwards I looked over some schoolwork for the upcoming week and did some scout work.

Monday: Went to school and got back around 3. At 3:30 I went to a dermatology appointment. Then at 6 my dad and I went to Blind Children's Learning Center and met with Mr. Richards to take measurements for my Eagle Scout Project

Tuesday: Went to school and got back around 3. I then worked on school homework and Boy Scout homework. Tonight I went to a court of honor for my troop that started at 7 and I got back home around 8:30.

Wednesday: Went to school and got back around 3. Worked on regular homework for a while and then had dinner with my family. At 7:30 I went to my high school church group and got back home at 9:30.

Thursday: Went to school and got back around 3. Went for an eye appointment at 3:30 and got back around 5:30. I worked on homework and then went to dinner with my parents to Centro. I got back home and did Boy Scout homework.

Friday: Went to school and got back around 3. Came back home and relaxed and had a well-deserved nap. I had friends come over at 7 to have a poker game that went to 10:30-11.

Saturday: Woke up and left for the Sea Base. Before I left I made sure that I had everything that would needed to be turned in. Then I turned in all my papers and then someone read it all and hopefully I got the merit badges.
